

Satellite radio is quite simply the most elegant form of broadcasting. Terrestrial bandwidth (FM and AM) is over crowded, in other words polluted. Therefore, there is no reason, other than blatant blackmail/corruption, to withhold broadcasting rights from the satellite broadcasters. Its broadcasters must be allowed equal rights to providing useful information to its listeners. Free up bandwidth - let satellites replace ugly transmitters.